The Glendale Historical Society advocates for the identification and preservation of Glendale landmarks, supports conserving the historic character of Glendale and educates the public and engages the community in the importance of historic preservation.

TGHS got its start in 1979 when a group of Glendale residents came together to save the Doctors House from demolition, moved it to Brand Park and authentically restored it.

TGHS is a tax-exempt, not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization, and donations to TGHS are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law.
